Library and Information Access

Open Positions

Full-Time or Part-Time Positions

Library and Information Access maintains an open pool of applications for temporary library faculty positions. Temporary appointments may be full-or part-time. We accept applications on an ongoing basis in all areas with principal responsibilities usually involving reference service or cataloging. Needs may also include collection development, and/or library instruction. Librarians wishing to be included in the pool for current or future needs are invited to submit a resume together with a cover letter outlining their interest. The pool is generally updated every six months, and applications may be renewed.

Qualifications: MLS from an ALA-accredited institution or equivalent. Academic library experience preferred, but not required. Reference experience and familiarity with reference tools in business, sciences, social sciences, or humanities desirable; ability to apply technology to reference and instructional services desirable.

Rank and Salary: Appointments are normally made at the Assistant Librarian rank; current full time salary range is $46,524 - $55,944 per year.

Send letter of application, resume and names, postal and e-mail address of at least three references to:

Patrick McCarthy, Associate Dean; San Diego State University; 5500 Campanile Dr.; San Diego, CA 92182-8050.

Applications may be submitted by e-mail. Send to pmccarthy PMcCarthy@mail.sdsu.edu.
